F Letter from the President

I am honored to introduce Interfaith Social Services’ 2014 Annual Report. Sixty-eight years of providing compassionate services to our friends in need! What a milestone. What a commitment of caring to our clients in Quincy and surrounding South Shore communities. This is the time to recognize our successes and achievements, and to share our vision for the future as we grow and strengthen individual and family life.

This has been a year of milestones. Our Food Pantry has experienced explosive growth in the number of clients and in the amount of donations. Our friends and sponsors have generously given thousands of dollars and truckloads of food to meet the nutritional needs of our clients. Our New Directions Counseling Center has increased their outreach efforts to let our communities and potential clients know that they are here for everyone in need of a professional and compassionate shoulder to lean on. Their sliding-fee scale makes treatment affordable for all, and they have added a new staff member for enhanced service.

In keeping with Interfaith’s faith-based roots, our Interfaith Hospital Chaplaincy program has made a successful transition from the closing of the Quincy Medical Center to the Beth Israel Milton Medical Center. Please look for more details about all our programs in this report.

I want to thank all who support Interfaith and make it a success. It is the generous support of caring individuals, faith communities, foundations, and corporate sponsors that enable us to make a difference in the lives of individuals and families. As you know, we have many volunteer opportunities available throughout the year to support our mission of helping people. I invite you to contact Interfaith to become part of this valuable group. The volunteers and staff that you will meet are dedicated and enthusiastic. Become a part of this team!

May God richly bless you in your support of the good that is being accomplished here at Interfaith.

Sincerely,
Jim Thorne
Board President

Interested in being active, getting involved in the community and making friends? Your face could be here. Interfaith is one of the South Shore’s most popular centers for volunteering and community engagement. We have many volunteer opportunities available. Contact pdaniels@InterfaithSocialServices.org today for more information.
We can never say the words THANK YOU enough to all of the people who make it possible for Interfaith to serve so many of our neighbors in need: The volunteers, the donors, the Thrift Shop customers and countless others. THANK YOU can mean various things in different circumstances. For example, when Interfaith’s volunteers or staff say THANK YOU to people as they drop off donations, we are conveying more than just appreciation. We say those two words as our acknowledgment of a contract. We have become stewards or custodians of your gift; as such we are promising to use it to help as many people as efficiently as possible. We take that commitment very seriously.

In another situation, the words THANK YOU take on a different, yet equally powerful meaning — when they come from a grateful client. This is a letter that was recently sent to our HomeSafe program manager:

I am writing you to sincerely thank you and Interfaith Social Services for helping me catch up on my past due rent. Words can’t describe how grateful I am for the payment you made on my behalf.

I am also very grateful for you working out a payment plan with my landlord, to help me pay the remaining balance of my past due amount. What you guys do there, at Interfaith Social Services, is a great thing. You help people in need of assistance during hard times. I really respect what you do there. To show my appreciation, please let me know if you are in need of any volunteers, and I would absolutely love to volunteer my services.

Once again, thank you from the bottom of my heart! I don’t know how I would have got caught up without your help, and because of your company, I still have a roof over my head and I am getting my finances in order once again.

Please don’t hesitate to reach out to me if you’re in need of volunteers or clothing donations. I will help as much as I can!

Thank you very much! It’s people like you that give others a second chance.

THANK YOU — two very powerful words, and we can’t say them enough. Everyone here at Interfaith is incredibly grateful for your support which makes it possible for us to serve thousands of people just like this client every year.

Rick Doane
Executive Director

Jenn Reale’s enthusiasm, compassion and commitment to helping others has made her the standout choice as Interfaith Social Services’ 2014 Community Hero of the Year. Jenn is Program Coordinator for The Arbella Insurance Foundation. She oversees all activities and programs that the Foundation has in place to support Arbella Insurance Group employees. She is a member of Arbella’s Activities Committee, a group of employees who are committed to promoting a culture of teamwork and camaraderie through corporate citizenship and, more importantly, fun.

Jenn organizes hundreds of Arbella employees every year who volunteer at such places as Interfaith Social Services, Father Bill’s and Mainspring, Project Bread, Cradles to Crayons and South Shore Habitat for Humanity.

In 2014, Jenn, sometimes alone, or more often with her husband Rich, their four-year-old son Richard and one-year-old daughter Penelope, walked or ran in 18 different charity events! She supported organizations such as Children’s Hospital, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Interfaith Social Services, One Fund Boston and March of Dimes among others. If Jenn sees an opportunity to help people she is there. She is integral in creating transformational volunteer experiences for nonprofit organizations and Arbella employees.

Thank you Jenn for all that you do for our community!

Each year Interfaith Social Services’ Community Hero of the Year Award is presented to individuals who inspire others through selfless service. Past recipients include Cindy Lee, Ed Kelley, Paula Lombardo, Beverly Tangvick, Thomas F. Williams. Esq., Kris Larsen, Matti Lang, Jan Stewart, Mary Ann Walsh, Robert F. Taylor, Margaret Davidson, Andrew Scheele.
JANUARY

BUILDING REMODELING BEGINS
Thanks to a grant from the Arbella Insurance Foundation, as well as a generous individual, we were able to repair the heating system for half of the building, replace all of the building’s windows, install new flooring in the Bureau Drawer Thrift Shop and resurface the stucco exterior of the building. A word of advice from our staff — when getting new windows installed in January, dress warmly!

FEBRUARY

COUNSELING
Beginning in early 2014, Interfaith Social Services’ New Directions Counseling Center facilitated a series of free support groups to help underserved populations. Groups included: coping with job loss, support in overcoming anxiety and depression, women’s issues, using substances to cope, and reminiscences and memories for seniors. Counseling coordinator Claire Hagen and Interfaith board member Sandy Johnson were both instrumental in coordinating these groups.

MARCH

EASTER BASKETS
Over 350 Easter baskets were assembled by volunteers and distributed to the children of families served by Interfaith’s food pantry. Thousands of pieces of candy and hundreds of small toys were donated by the community to fill the Easter baskets.

APRIL

40TH ANNUAL SOUTH SHORE WALK & 5K RUN
In spite of periodic downpours, hundreds of participants turned out to walk and run. They collected over $20,000 in donations and pledges to benefit thousands of South Shore families in need of food, counseling and emergency assistance.

JUNE

HOMESAFE
In one of the busiest months of 2014 for the HomeSafe Program, manager Michelle Morais assisted 46 families. All of these households were on the brink of eviction or the loss of a basic utility. Through budget counseling and some financial assistance she was able to assist 108 people who resided in those households.

JULY

HARVEST HELPERS
Keohane Funeral Homes donated free vegetable seedlings to volunteers from the community who agreed to raise the plants and donate the produce to local food pantries. John Keohane and other Keohane Funeral Home staff members also donated fresh produce grown at their community garden this summer.

MAY

QUINCY PRAYER BREAKFAST
Coinciding with the National Day of Prayer, Quincy’s Prayer Breakfast was held on May 1. Sponsored by Mayor Thomas P. Koch, hundreds of attendees assembled to hear prayers from local religious leaders, musical numbers and speakers from the community who shared reflections about the importance of prayer in their lives.

AUGUST

DIAPERS
BMC HealthNet donated over 6,000 diapers to Interfaith’s food pantry. Diapers are a huge expense for families who are already struggling to make ends meet. The parents who benefited from... this donation were overjoyed at this surprise, when they received the diapers along with groceries from the pantry. BMC HealthNet’s donation helped raise awareness about the need for diaper donations to emergency assistance programs.

SEPTEMBER
BACKPACKS
As schools opened in September, hundreds of local kids started their first day on the right foot thanks to Interfaith’s generous donors. 442 backpacks filled with school supplies were distributed to the children of families served by Interfaith’s Food Pantry.

OCTOBER
HALLOWEEN
Over 200 children who otherwise might have missed out on some childhood fun received new and gently-used Halloween costumes, thanks to a team of generous donors led by Interfaith’s Feed the Hungry Gala planning committee. Volunteers from Arbella Insurance sorted costumes in preparation for distribution, and Pot Belly Sandwiches of Braintree supplied sandwiches and cookies for all of the children who came in to select costumes.

Volunteers celebrate our Four-Star rating.
CHARITY NAVIGATOR ★★★★★
Interfaith Social Services was awarded a four-star rating — the highest possible — from Charity Navigator, America’s largest independent charity evaluator.

NOVEMBER
THANKSGIVING
Over 800 households comprised of 2,253 people were able to sit down and enjoy a Thanksgiving meal thanks to the amazing efforts of Interfaith’s staff, volunteers, donors and volunteers from the United Way of Massachusetts Bay & Merrimack Valley. Meal packages included a turkey, mashed potatoes, vegetables, stuffing, cranberry sauce and more.

Volunteers from the United Way pitched in to provide Thanksgiving meals.

ANNUAL GALA
INTERFAITH SOCIAL SERVICES

Setting a fundraising record for Interfaith, the phenomenal 2014 Gala raised over $220,000 to sustain our various programs. Emceed by NECN’s Latoyia Edwards, the “Winter Wonderland” themed Gala featured carnival-style games, door prizes, live entertainment, and a variety of live and silent auction packages, while chefs from top South Shore restaurants created a delicious “Dine Around” tasting.

The 2014 Gala committee celebrates another successful event.
In 2014 volunteers donated over 19,000 hours of service assisting Interfaith’s clients. Volunteers are the heart and soul of Interfaith Social Services. They distribute food, sort clothing, answer telephones, plan fundraisers and perform many other duties. These volunteers personify Interfaith’s conviction that the best way to help our neighbors in need is by mobilizing members of their own community who compassionately provide the help that is needed. Thank you to these volunteers who contributed to our mission in 2014.

Thank you to our generous donors

Interfaith Social Services is only able to realize our mission thanks to the generosity of individuals, foundations, businesses, houses of worship, fraternal organizations, community groups and others who made a donation this past year. Whether you contributed food, clothing, time or money, we are sincerely grateful for every donation received. This donor list covers the time period from 1/1/2014 to 12/31/2014.

The Matti Lang Volunteer Hall of Fame is named after one of Interfaith’s most dedicated volunteers who gave decades of his life selflessly serving Interfaith’s clients. The honor of being inducted into the Hall of Fame is bestowed upon those volunteers who have been serving within the organization regularly for at least one year. Their names are inscribed on a plaque which hangs in Interfaith’s foyer.

These individuals, from the following towns, were honored at this year’s induction ceremony:

Braintree: Chris Choi, Roe Salama and Stephanie Schwartz

Hingham: Thomas Dinneen and Ralph Palmieri

Quincy: Maureen Argento, Rita Buckmann, Susan Flaherty, Jim Grant, Corinne Kennedy, Maura McDonough, Anne McNeil, Maureen Mills, Patricia Norton, Susan Sullivan, Marcel Williams and Donna Chapman

Weymouth: Bettyanne Lang
