THE SOUTH SHORE'S MULTISERVICE CENTER FOR FAMILIES IN NEED

2025 Annual Report

INTERFAITH'S FOOD PANTRY CELEBRATES 50 YEARS

◀ THEN: 1975 | NOW: 2025 ▶

FROM RICK DOANE, INTERFAITH EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Fifty years ago, Interfaith’s staff members saw a need in our community and responded with a simple act of compassion. In a small closet, filled with a handful of donated canned goods, our food pantry began. It was a pioneering effort — our emergency food program here in Quincy was one of the first food pantries in the country. The mission in 1974 was clear and it remains a bedrock principle of all that we do: provide a welcoming place where our neighbors can find nourishment and hope.

Looking back, it's incredible to see how far we’ve come. That small closet has blossomed into a bustling, comprehensive resource — one of the largest food pantries in Greater Boston. The transformation reflects not only the growing needs of our community but also the incredible generosity of partners like you. What was once a collection of staples evolved into a full-scale operation offering fresh produce, dairy, meat, and essential hygiene items to thousands of individuals and families each year. The sheer volume of food, the number of families we serve, and the dignity with which we do it are all testaments to this remarkable journey.

This growth is not just a change in size; it’s a profound expansion of our ability to help. Interfaith offers mental health counseling to families and individuals who in many cases have nowhere else to turn for help. Our homelessness prevention program helps hundreds of families every year. Our various joy for children initiatives bring happiness to thousands of children in our community. None of this would be possible without your unwavering support. Your partnership has been the driving force behind every carton of milk, every bag of fresh vegetables, and every counseling session that we provide. You are the reason we can keep our shelves stocked and our doors open, offering a lifeline to those facing food insecurity and emotional distress.

It is amazing to see what our grassroots, community-based organization has accomplished — but we are even more focused on the future and the work that lies ahead. In 2019 Interfaith’s food pantry was serving 8,774 households per year. This past year we served 20,901 households — a 138% increase! It can be daunting to consider how much the demand for our services increased in a short period of time, even as we brace for more increases in the coming years. With your help we know that we can rise to the occasion. Our neighbors in need are depending on us. Thank you for ensuring that Interfaith’s programs remain a beacon of hope for the next 50 years and beyond.

With deepest thanks,

Rick Doane signature

Just 11% of each gift goes toward our administrative and fundraising costs — well below the nonprofit standard of 20–35%.
