Food Pantry

Interfaith is committed to not just feeding, but nourishing our clients. Each grocery order includes fresh produce, proteins, and dairy items to support healthy lifestyles for our neighbors in need.

Homelessness Prevention

The goal of our HomeSafe program is to keep families "safe at home" by providing emergency financial assistance and budget counseling.

Mental Health

Interfaith's New Directions Counseling Center provides compassionate counseling on a sliding scale payment system. Through our annual Stop the Stigma 5K and by offering free initial sessions, we aim to break down stigmas and financial barriers to treatment.

Personal Care

Hygiene is not a luxury, it's a basic human necessity. In addition to food, we provide our clients with toiletries, diapers, incontinence items, and period products each time they visit our pantry.

Volunteers

More than 1,220 volunteers selflessly gave nearly 27,000 hours of service last year! They distributed 115,000 bags of groceries to clients of our food pantry and sorted 10,000+ bags of clothing in our Thrift Shop.

Joy for Children

Interfaith's mission is to provide not only food, but also joy to the children we serve. We offer seasonal programs such as Bunny Baskets, backpacks filled with school supplies, Halloween costumes and holiday gifts.
