

INTERFAITH
SOCIAL SERVICES

THE SOUTH SHORE'S MULTISERVICE
CENTER FOR FAMILIES IN NEED

2026 ANNUAL REPORT

FROM RICK DOANE, INTERFAITH EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Over the past five years, here at Interfaith Social Services' food pantry we have seen a steady increase in the number of clients that we serve. Because we rely entirely on donations from local individuals and businesses (we receive no government funding), we are continuously asking our community for help.

In our hectic world of constant news, social media notifications and countless other forces competing for our attention, our team often worries that our message will get lost in the noise of everyday life, especially during a crisis.

However, this year we know you got the message. The SNAP crisis in the fall of 2025 was a watershed moment. As the most vulnerable members of our community panicked, we witnessed unprecedented demand for our food pantry. But then we saw an overwhelming response from community members ready to make a difference.

We received an outpouring of support from longtime supporters and an incredible number of first-time donors. Through financial gifts and food drives, we weathered the storm together, bringing hope and essential supplies to local families.

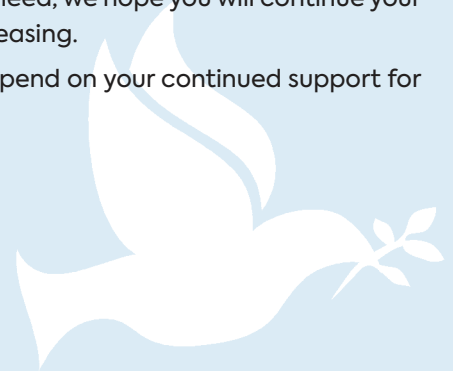

This type of community-based compassion happens every day across all our programs. While the food pantry is our most visible initiative, our other programs also bring comfort in profound ways. This past year, our HomeSafe program helped hundreds of individuals and children avoid the tragedy of homelessness. Additionally, our New Directions Counseling Center provided thousands of mental health sessions to people who might otherwise lack access to treatment.

When you look at the names in this Annual Report, you see people who heard the message, saw the need, and answered the call. Some of you have sustained our programs for decades, while others are listed here for the first time. We are deeply grateful for all of you! Now that you know the depth of the need, we hope you will continue your support on a regular basis. The challenges faced by our neighbors are not decreasing.

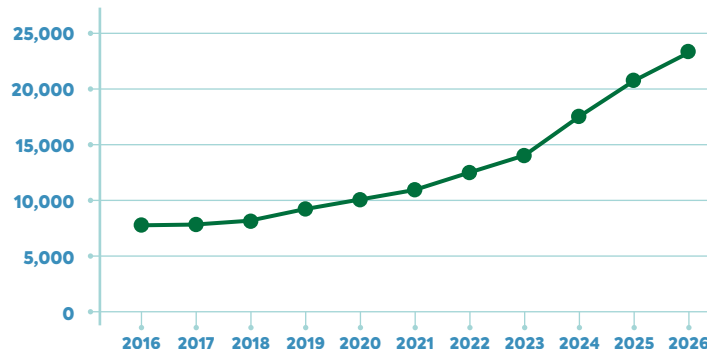

Thank you for helping us meet the needs of yesterday, and we hope we can depend on your continued support for tomorrow.

With deepest thanks,

Rick Doane

INTERFAITH SOCIAL SERVICES, INC. FINANCIAL REPORT 2025

We are deeply committed to being conscientious stewards of all donations that we receive. We receive no government funding and are completely privately funded. Fiscal responsibility guides all our decisions, ensuring that 89% of each dollar donated directly supports our programs. To stretch every dollar, we partner with local organizations, rescue food from more than a dozen grocery stores, and rely on a core team of over 160 dedicated volunteers. Just 11% of each gift goes toward our administrative and fundraising costs — well below the nonprofit standard of 20–35%.
