

STOP THE STIGMA 5K

INTERFAITH SOCIAL SERVICES

Saturday, May 2, 2020 ~ The Kennedy Center, North Quincy

An opportunity to support our friends, neighbors and family members affected by mental illness and addiction.

Nearly everyone in our community knows someone who has been affected by mental illness or addiction. To bring awareness to these issues, Interfaith Social Services will fill the streets of Quincy with walkers and runners for the 46th annual Stop the Stigma 5K on May 2.

You can help show our community that mental illness is not a cause for shame.

Your sponsorship will:

- Publicize your business to thousands of South Shore residents who support Interfaith's programs.
- Sustain Interfaith's New Directions Counseling Center—a mental health safety net for the community since 1947.
- Fund counseling sessions for local residents in need
- Help the Stop the Stigma associated with mental illness and addiction!
